THE CHANGE MAKER CHALLENGE

Changemakers wanted: share your idea to make travel and mobility more sustainable

We believe that digital and technological solutions will be one of the most powerful levers for boosting sustainability - help us find them!

Do you have an idea on how to make urban mobility more sustainable? Or how to mitigate and compensate the negative effects of travel? Or something that no one has ever thought of? Then pitch us your idea!

The Changemaker Challenge calls for talented students, professionals and early-stage startups from around the globe to submit their ideas.
